

MAYSVILLE DAILY LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1897.

ONE CENT.

More Talk About Time.

Some people are peculiar in the matter of buying a Watch. A silver Watch is good enough for one man so long as it keeps good time. Another one wants something a little more showy—a gold one,—but it, too, must keep good time. Some want a high-priced Watch, others a cheaper one, but after all everybody wants a correct timepiece. We selected our stock with time in view, and can sell you a high, low or medium-priced Watch—and any of them will keep time—the essential point.

We repair Watches so that we can guarantee them to keep time. Charges low.

HERE AND THERE

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. Rees Davis of Fleming is in the city yesterday.

Colonel W. W. Baldwin was in Frankfort Wednesday.

Mrs. Anna Dimmitt Merrill of Clermont county, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Judge M. C. Hutchins.

Mrs. Ryan of Columbus, O., has returned home after a pleasant visit to her friend, Mrs. Stella McDonald.

Mrs. Phoebe Gordon Arthur of Desha Valley was the guest of Mrs. Mary Forman at Washington yesterday.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 33, and send it in.

Fire Insurance—John C. Everett.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fitzgerald mourn the loss of their infant child.

Chambers, little son of Mr. Fred Zweigart, has been quite ill for several days.

Thomas, little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Meyers of Lee street, is seriously ill.

Judge Wallace S. Giddell of Owingsville is a candidate for Circuit Judge in the Sixth District.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Mannen died March 18th, at West Superior, Wis.

Mr. S. Wallace, who taught school at Germantown some fifty years ago, is now living at Richmond, Ind.

Mrs. M. R. Gilmore yesterday received a check for $2,000 in payment of a policy on the life of her late husband.

Resignations of Fourth-class Postmasters in Kentucky are being received at Washington at the rate of five a day.

Wheat is doing finely this wet weather, and grain is beginning to show some; but farmers want dry weather for plowing.

Tomorrow the personality of the late Travis C. Glacook will be sold at public sale near Rectortville. See advertisement.

Despite the incessant rain, Hon. William A. Byrne's lecture at St. Patrick's Church Wednesday evening was a splendid success.

Meeting Mayville Council, U. C. T. tonight at 7:30. Election of officers.

J. L. Nicolson, S. C. George F. Brown, Secretary.

Tobacco vending is very dull and lifeless. We have heard of only one sale for some days. A farmer a few miles west of the city sold his crop all round at 7 cents.

Rescuers who have been looking for the bodies of the unfortunate victims who were drowned Saturday night on the ferry boat below Vanceburg found the body of one of the victims Thursday morning. Papers found identify him as Louis Smith.

On account of the extremely unfavorable weather the musicale which would have been given at Haywood Seminary Friday evening, March 19th, will be postponed until Monday evening. The patron friends and those interested in the school are cordially invited to be present.

Now that the prize fight is over and the other fellow won, and that the long-drawn case of Jackson and Walling will terminate tomorrow where it ought to have terminated long ago—at the end of a rope,—suppose we all get down to business? The best beginning is by placing an advertisement in THE LEDGER.

Colonel Jo Kindig fairly "whooped" em up" yesterday in the way of buying horses. By noon he had purchased fifteen and a carload was secured before 4 o'clock. Those bought were this morning shipped to the Colonel's stables at York Pa. This is said to be the best load Mr. Kindig has bought here in three years. He will return in about three weeks.

Special For Saturday.

Fancy Bananas, per dozen... 10c.

Fancy Cranberries, per quart... 5c.

2 dozen fancy Lemons... 35c.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from the Grip is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for the Grip, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dread disease. It will effect a permanent cure in less time than any other treatment. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Sherley will pass up tonight for Pomeroy.

The Hudson will pass down tonight for Cincinnati.

The Keystone State passed up last night for Wheeling and Pittsburgh.

The Henry M. Stanley passed up last night for Charleston and way points.

Cattletown is overrun with lumbermen at present, who are busy taking care of timber brought out of the Big Sandy by the recent rise in the river.

The Ohio and tributaries have begun swelling again, and another period of high water may be looked for, as the rains of the past two days have been general throughout the entire Ohio Valley. With the Mississippi bank full from Cairo to New Orleans, and rain still falling, the prospects are flattering for a big river.

There is some talk of a new packet line between Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, to be run in opposition to the old established line. Pittsburgh capitalists, said to be at the head of the movement, will have three first class passenger and freight boats built for the trade. It is said that landings have been secured at all the prominent towns along the line.

"TROUBLE IN DE LAM."

A complaint from the Sixth Ward That Needs Looking After.

THE LEDGER this morning has handed the following note by a resident of East Second street:

"Thursday evening about 6 o'clock a man by the name of Gardner, who lives near Tullahoma, was drunk, riding through town as fast as his horse could, and he came and went three or four times, hollering, whooping and made some boys run into a pond. There were no officers in sight or hearing.

"This is not the worst. Boys on Sunday fight chickens and have dog and cat fights.

"There is no use of an officer up here; at least it looks so to a man up a tree."

[Note:—The electric streetcar is running; there is telephone connection with the office of the Chief of Police; and when these disorders occur and are so prolonged, it's a wonder some one wouldn't telephone for an officer. At least it looks that way to a man who is not up a tree.—Ed. LEDGER.]

All the pikes in Bourbon county are now free except the Mayville and Lexington, the Georgetown and the Shawhan and Ruddle's Mill roads.

Rev. Charles F. Heaverin, born near Minerva May 28, 1825, died Tuesday at Augusta. For several years Rev. Heaverin traveled as an itinerant Minister in the Kentucky Annual Conference, and was for 16 years collector for the American Bible Society. His wife, who was Mrs. Mattie A. Burris, and two children survive. The funeral took place yesterday morning at Augusta.

From Cripple Creek.

After the big fire in Cripple Creek, I took a very severe cold and tried many remedies without help, the cold only becoming more settled. After using three small bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, both the cough and cold left me, and in this high altitude it takes a meritorious cough remedy to do any good.—G. B. HENNINGSON.

THE GREAT CONTEST.

The "Blues" Are a Hasting Lot of Fellows, and Are Sure Winners.

Following is the way the first round stood when time was called last night at 10 o'clock:

BLUES.....3

REDS.....5

Every membership ticket issued by the "Blues" dates from the time you pay your money.

Captain Cox told us yesterday that we were good representatives of our colors—we all looked so blue. Well, we were so sorry for the good natured Captain and his army that it was enough to make even an Indian cigar sign look blue.

Several young men who are holding out because they have not the $5 just at present are not consistent in their talks. They have been to almost every show that has been at the Opera-house this season, and we are satisfied that they are not holders of yearly complimentary.

If they have money to go to shows with, they certainly ought to save enough to become a member of the Y. M. C. A.

Yesterday was really the first day of the great membership contest for the Y. M. C. A. on which any real work was done by the "Blues" and "Reds," and while the "Blues" did not capture all those in the city who were not members already, they succeeded in convincing their opponents that they were in the fight to win. Captain Kackley has the boys worked up to a realization of their duty, and when the first quarter post is reached the "Blues" will be found waiting for their opponents.

What's still a puzzle to us is how the "Reds" can have the nerve to represent a color when they have to issue another color of membership tickets. When asked how they were going to get around it, one replied that they were issuing red ones, showing his application card. He forgot that these cards make application for a blue membership ticket, and that there are no red ones. The "Blues" issue no counterfeits. The blue card admits to everything, with a fine, large, ice-cold glass of blue lemonade and three straws thrown in for good measure.

Some one is going about telling the young men that it costs $5 to get into the Y. M. C. A., and then they are made to pay 35 cents for towels, 25 cents for a key to the gymnasium and have to pay $1 or $2 for a suit in which to practice. In fact, they say that instead of $5, it takes $9 or $10 to become a member. All of which is as false as it is possible for a human to make up. The "Blues" will issue any young man a membership ticket for $5 and guarantee that he can take part in all the privileges, and the only additional cost will be the purchase of a gymnasium suit, and that will belong to him, not to the Association.

Commencing Monday, March 15th, you can get a regular meal at Roper's New Era for 25 cents.

It has been said that the reason that the 17th of March is always spoken of as "St. Patrick's Day in the morning" is simply because no true Irishman ever remembers what takes place that day after noon.

ALARMING INCREASE.

How Chickens Multiply For some Poultry Dealers in the County.

It is told of one of the men who were engaged in the raid on the Messrs. Best's chickens a few nights since, that he had one hen and a rooster, and sold as many as twelve or fifteen dozen chickens in a single season at their increase.

WE'RE FOR AMERICA! AMERICANS!

When the Democrats were in power in Kentucky Democratic Editors and orators were everlastingly lying about the condition of the state finances—saying there was no money in the Treasury; that the state was out of debt; that the Republican claim that these things were untrue was a piece of political fiction, and a whole lot more of the same sort. And it was not until the Republicans got into control and "got a look at the books" that the people of the state were made aware of the fact that the taxpayers of Kentucky have before them the enormous sum of $4,084,968.75 that is already past due and must be paid.

So it has been with the National finances. With the advent of Mr. Cleveland and Free-trade Uncle Sam began falling behind, and every year of his miserable Administration added additional burdens of debt, which must be borne by the taxpayers of the Nation.

Now that President McKinley's Administration will be expected to take up the good work left off by President Harrison—that of meeting current expenses and at the same time reducing the public debt—it may not be amiss to learn just how lame Mr. Cleveland's financial management has been.

It is found by the reports of the Secretary of the Treasury that the revenues for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1892, from all sources were $425,868,200.12, and the expenditures for all purposes were $415,563,806.26, leaving an excess of receipts over expenditures of $9,304,393.86. During that fiscal year, $40,570,467.98 was paid upon the public debt, which had been reduced since March 1st, 1889, $250,076,890, and the annual interest charge decreased $11,684,576.60. The receipts of the Government from all sources during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1893, amounted to $461,716,561.94, and its expenditures to $459,374,387.65, showing an excess of receipts over expenditures of $2,342,174.29.

Since that time the receipts of no fiscal year, and with but few exceptions of no month of any fiscal year, have exceeded the expenditures. The receipts of the Government from all sources during the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1894, were $372,802,408.29, and its expenditures $442,006,758.87, leaving a deficit, the first since the resumption of specie payments, of $69,204,350.58.

Notwithstanding there was a decrease of $18,760,128.75 in the ordinary expenses of the Government as compared with the previous fiscal year, its income was still not sufficient to provide for its daily necessities, and the gold reserve in the Treasury for the redemption of greenbacks was drawn upon to meet them. But this did not suffice, and the Government then resorted to loans to replenish the reserve.

In February, 1894, $50,000,000 in bonds were issued, and in November following a second issue of $50,000,000 was deemed necessary. The sum of $117,171,736 was realized by the sale of these bonds, but the reserve was steadily decreased until on February 8th, 1895, a third sale of $62,315,400 in bonds, for $55,116,244, was announced to Congress.

The receipts of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1895, were $390,373,303.31, and the expenditures $418,178,438.48, showing a deficit of $27,805,135.17. A further loan of $100,000,000 was negotiated by the Government in February, 1896, the sale netting $111,165,246, and swelling the aggregate of bonds issued within three years to $202,315,400. For the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1896, the revenue of the Government from all sources amounted to $409,475,408.78, while its expenditures were $436,778,654.48, or an excess of expenditures over receipts of $27,303,245.70. In other words, the total receipts for the three fiscal years ending June 30th, 1896, were insufficient by $137,511,729.46 to meet the total expenditures.

Nor has this condition since improved. For the first half of the present fiscal year the receipts of the Government, exclusive of postal revenues, were $157,507,603.76 and its expenditures, exclusive of postal service, $165,410,000.22, or an excess of expenditures over receipts of $7,902,396.46.

In January of this year the receipts, exclusive of postal revenues, were $24,316,044.06 and the expenditures, exclusive of postal service, $30,269,389.29, a deficit of $5,953,345.24 for the month. In February of this year the receipts, exclusive of postal revenues, were $24,400,967.38 and expenditures, exclusive of postal service, $28,790,056.06, a deficit of $4,389,088.68, or a total deficiency of $10,601,580.44 for the three years and eight months ending March 1st, 1897. Not only are we without a surplus in the Treasury, but with an increase in the public debt there has been a corresponding increase in the annual interest charge from $22,509,853.20 in 1892, the lowest of any year since 1862, to $34,387,297.60 in 1896, or an increase of $11,877,444.40.

There is surely no need of argument to prove that a change is required, and a radical change at that. Under a Protective Tariff and a Republican Administration the country will have it.

Governor Bradley received a letter from Cincinnati warning him that he would be killed if he permitted Walling to hang.

Confessions of Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling.

They Blame Dr. Wagner for the Death of Miss Bryan.

They Declare That Wagner Administered the Fatal Drug at His House in Bellevue—He Then, With the Assistance of Jackson and Walling, Cut Her Head off at Fort Thomas.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 18.—The confession of Scott Jackson is in the hands of Gov. Bradley. Jackson says Pearl Bryan went to Cincinnati by the advice of Will Wood, her seducer, with a desire on her part to have a criminal operation performed. Scott says he received many letters from Wood telling of his trouble and begging him to let him know how to get out of it.

Jackson sent Wood all the information he knew about such matters in order to help him out. Wood finally said he would send Pearl to Cincinnati, and wrote to Jackson to get some one to perform the operation. The letters were shown to Alonzo Walling, and he said he thought he could get some one to perform the operation, and said he would look up a room for the purpose.

Point arrived in Cincinnati, Monday, January 1st, and went to the Indiana house. She went to a room in the Indiana house, and Jackson, asking them to call as soon as possible. They went and told Miss Bryan that there was a correspondence with a friend to secure a place for her to go and obtain medical treatment. She asked Jackson to take her valise and relieve her of the trouble of carrying it, which he did. He took it to his room and left it there.

Jackson arranged with Miss Bryan to meet Walling on Wednesday morning at Fourth and Lake and he was to tell her where to go. Wednesday afternoon Walling told Jackson he had sent Pearl to the room. On Thursday Walling received word by mail from Dr. Wagner to come out, and in the evening both went to Bellevue and found Wagner on the corner by Fortmeyer's drug store. After the interview Jackson returned to Cincinnati and went to his room and called downstairs on the Miss McVinties, and then went to his room, remaining there until about 11 o'clock, waiting for Walling. As he did not come Jackson went out as quietly as he could, and went to Bellevue and to the doctor's house.

When Jackson arrived in Bellevue he met Walling, who was looking for him. They entered Wagner's house. Wagner was sitting at the table, and Jackson went to him and asked Jackson to get him some valise of his. He went to the room and procured it then hurrying back. Doctor Wagner gave a dose of 10 grains of opium, and in a few minutes, and she suddenly fainted or became unconscious. Wagner then brought her to herself again, but she was unable to do so, and exclaimed: "She's gone, boys, and we must get her out of here as soon as we can, or she will stay there for a short time and he would fix things or else he would all be in a hole, and I must get her away."

Walling and Jackson remained in the house. Jackson said he is sure she died of the medicine given to her to produce abortion. Dr. Wagner returned in a few minutes, and in the back door and said: "Get her ready, quick, and we will take her to the hotel on a sofa or couch, with undetecting and light wrapper. They put a cloak about her, and Walling and Wagner carried her out to the car in the alley back of the house. Scott carried the two bags belonging to Pearl, and he and his brother had these all put in the back. Walling and Scott got into the car, and Scott drove down the alley and out in the country.

Dr. Wagner stopped and said: "Have you fellows any idea of what to do now?" Jackson said he did not know, but did not want to be any more than he could help in the case. He said: "You must leave it to me, boys, but I don't know where." Walling said: "You must get this thing out of sight, or it will all be in trouble." Wagner drove to the lane between Stone's and Jackson's farms (Jackson's farm was in the corner). He stopped at the Alexandria place and said: "Let's leave it here—we will have it done."

The body was removed from the cab and it was carried to the first and a store up the lane behind some bushes. Dr. Wagner took off her corset and listened to hear any heart action, and said: "This is all right, and it is the first time I ever knew of any one going under in that way. These boys, you must not betray me, for he would be hanged if I was caught." Walling said: "With that he took out his dagger and cut the head of Jackson to the base of her head. Jackson said he saw the head of the body and threw it into the creek and wrapped it up. The body was then under some bushes. Walling picked up the head and the head was sent to the Ford to the cab. Wagner put the head in the car and they all rode to Newport bridge, where Walling and Jackson left and went to Cincinnati. Wagner drove away. Walling went to his room, taking the valise with him. He threw the clothing into the river, and he was going over the bridge. She was a weak over her wrapper. This became disclosed when the head was severed, by the blood and it was put in the valise. It must have caused the body to become excited. The head was not in the valise at this time.

Walling in his confession corroborates Jackson, and says that Mark Smith advised him to procure Dr. Wagner for Miss Bryan's relief. On Wednesday, Walling and Jackson Wagner called at the college and asked for him. The rest of the confession is substantially the same as Jackson's. Gov. Bradley read both confessions slowly and deliberately, taking up that of Jackson first. When he had completed he said: "This is clearly a new story starting and remarking. I will give a sleeping night to its consideration, and God helping me, I will do what my conscience and my duty direct. The decision will be made public." Lexington, Ky., March 18.—A reporter called on Dr. George B. Wagner at the residence, where he has been incarcerated since shortly after the finding of the dead body of Pearl Bryan. The doctor says that he was at home when the tragedy occurred or when the body was found. It was at that time that his father-in-law, Wm. Herndon, in Jessamine county, two miles south of Lexington on the Louisa River road. It was there that first heard of it. The tragedy was being discussed by his presence. I went to Jessamine county the latter part of January and remained there many two weeks. I returned to Lexington a very sick man shortly after the tragedy, on Monday of Tuesday in the first week of February. I think I fear Pearl Bryan was in no house I never heard of it.
